OCCULT IMPLICATIONS

Vedic culture has that an avatar with a horse's mane, Hayagriva, brings knowledge when it's lost to mankind. We take that Hayagriva may be related to the present Age of Pegasus. In this Age, Venus rises at east in Pegasus. The details were abundantly published over the past decades. In introducing the Original Zodiac, we were completely aware of its implications. The Eternal Zodiac has the power of exorcising the planetary Devil.

DO ASTROLOGERS KNOW?

They all do know or have heard about the zodiac and ascendant set, which they of course tend to avoid. Being desperately chained to false theories, they may count only on the most misinformed, those who out of their own misery or lack of consciousness still numbly pick to believe in thirteen (13) zodiacal stations where there are (22) twenty-two.

DOES EVERYBODY KNOW?

People in general still take for granted that there are (13) thirteen zodiacal stations only. They probably assume that this means (13) thirteen ascendants. Linear logic would assume (13) as both the number of ascendants and zodiacal signs. This is however far from being true since in the real skies we have (22) twenty-two zodiacal stations along with (16) sixteen eastern ascendant for the current epoch. These simple factual phenomena can be observed by naked eye by anyone on this planet. As the real skies have been avoided for thousands of years, the astrologers keep people chained within the superstition of their own. Superstition is passed from generation to generation as tradition.

WHAT ABOUT 12?

The (12) twelve group represents the lowest superstition from the past, a legacy of the dark times when people knew no zodiac proper, ascendant set or house system. It is wrong to assume that there are (12) twelve ascendants since that would be contrary to precession, a basic force that faux astrology has been trying to avoid for quite some time.

WHAT WILL THE ZODIAC PRODUCE?

The zodiac is here in order to produce crisis. People will start to reevaluate the very basis of their own culture. As the chaff gets separated from the wheat, the bigwigs from the past will be ridiculed on behalf of their superstition. What was revered once will clearly show as false. People will learn to rely on observation and relevant data for their horoscopes, not on computerized superstition. Instead of faux data, IAU, Harvard MPC and NASA JPL data will be used in order to render horoscopes for a new mankind. These won't be mangled as they were before. Mangling natal data will be considered legal offence and crime against mankind by such organizations as the UNICEF. Faux ephemeris and manuals will be burned at the stake. You don't lie to your children: not anymore.

Read about it till October 14th 2011 when the revealing publications are alas scheduled for timely self-destruction. You don't want the strategic zodiacal as well as magical material to fall into the wrong hands, do you now?
